LYCEUM THEATRE

Presents Two Very Popular Plays
Next Week.

One of the season's chief offerings at the Lyceum Theatre, Toledo, for a four days' engagement, starting with the New Year's matinee Sunday, and including a special holiday matinee Monday, and popular price matinee Tuesday, is the two-act musical comedy "THE SOUL KISS," which brings out the services of a large force of funmakers, singers and dancers, numbering in all, a cast of sixty people. The comedy has a distinct plot and abounds in many comic scenes and colorful stage views.

The scenes are laid in the Latin, as well as the fashionable quarters of Paris, and the story involves adventures of a young artist, who is in search of a 'Soul Kiss,' which he describes, as a 'Kiss that rises from the heart to the lips.' The new musical interpolations offer many diverting possibilities of which due advantage has been taken in staging same, there being some twenty musical offerings, chief among them, is the eccentric comedy number entitled the 'Harry Lauder Girls,' presented by a coterie of girls, possessed with an abundance of charm and dash, garbed in an exact replica of the famous Scotch Comedian.

According to the press agent of "The Millionaire Kid" every one in town will soon be whistling "The Bees in the Business Hive" which is said to be one of the big song hits in this successor to "The Candy Kid." The play comes to the Lyceum Theatre, Toledo, for a three days engagement, starting with the usual popular price matinee Thursday, and including another matinee Saturday, and with Raymond Paine in the title role should prove a most acceptable offering.

One of the big scenes of the play takes place at Coney Island. The scenic artists have supplied a wonderfully realistic reproduction of a night scene at this famous resort, and with the aid of a bevy of pretty girls it looks homelike to every one who has been there. Despite the fact that nearly a score of pleasing numbers form one of the most attractive features of the play, it tells a story of intense dramatic interest and requires the services of a large number of well known actors and actresses.

The peculiar properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have been thoroughly tested during epidemics of influenza, and when it was taken in time we have not heard of a single case of pneumonia. Sold by C. P. Champney.

TRUTH TRIUMPHS

Perrysburg Citizens Testify for the Public Benefit.

A truthful statement of a Perrysburg citizen, given in his own words, should convince the most skeptical about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. If you suffer from backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, urinary disorders or any form of kidney ills, the cure is at hand. Read this:

Mrs. Caroline Walters, Sixth and Cherry Sts., Perrysburg, Ohio, says: "I cannot say too much in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills, after having so satisfactory an experience with them. My kidneys bothered me for about a year and I was subject to sharp pains in my back, often shooting through my shoulders and into the back of my neck. When the attacks came on, I could hardly arise from a chair. Dizzy spells and headaches were common and I felt miserable in every way. I had heard and read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills being good for such troubles and this induced me to try them. This remedy acted promptly and in a short time my back was entirely free from pain and lameness. Doan's Kidney Pills so greatly improved my condition that I now feel like a different person." (Statement given July 20, 1906.)

Permanently Cured.
Mrs. Walters confirmed the above testimonials on May 17, 1909, saying: "Doan's Kidney Pills made a permanent cure in my case. I still recommend this remedy highly and am willing to have you use my former statement in any way you see fit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WIFE INSTANTLY KILLED

Husband Picked Up by Engine and Carried Away.

Le Moyne, O., Dec. 25, 1910—Thrown upon the pilot of the south-bound fast Hocking Valley passenger train that struck and demolished the buggy and instantly killed his wife, who was riding with him, at 5:30 o'clock here tonight, John Bottleheim, wealthy farmer, residing a half mile south of Lemoyne, was carried to Pemberville, six miles distant, where he alighted, dazed from the shock and exposure to the cold, but otherwise uninjured.

He returned here an hour later on a northbound train, where a physician and friends met him and took him to his home, while the body of his wife lay in the depot awaiting the arrival of Coroner Canfield, who had been summoned from Perrysburg. Later the body of Mrs. Bottleheim was taken in charge by Undertaker W. H. Schwan, of Luckey, and taken to the Bottleheim home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bottleheim had been spending Christmas with their only child, Mrs. George Schulte, at Gibsonburg, and were on their way home. As they drove across the Hocking Valley tracks here the southbound train, which does not stop at this station, struck the buggy squarely. The side curtains of the vehicle were up and prevented the occupants from seeing the fast approaching train. Two girls, who saw their danger, called to them to stop, but their warnings were not heard. The crew of the engine evidently were not aware of the accident, as the train was not stopped.

The girls who had witnessed the fatality notified others, who ran to the crossing and found the body of Mrs. Bottleheim, where she had been thrown 50 feet from the crossing. The body was carried into the depot and Dr. Price summoned. He found that the woman's neck was broken and death had been instantaneous.

Search, however, failed to reveal any trace of Mr. Bottleheim. The horse was found dead at the side of the track and parts of the wrecked buggy was strewn about.

Believing that Mr. Bottleheim had been killed and the body caught up by the "cow catcher" a message was telegraphed to Pemberville, apprising the railroad agent there of the accident and asking that a search be made for Bottleheim's body, when the train stopped there.

A few minutes later a reply was received, telling of Bottleheim's arrival and miraculous escape from serious injury. When he alighted from the engine he still held part of the broken lines in his hand, together with the laprobe.

Although dazed he was able to walk without assistance, although one leg was somewhat lame from a bruise. He was informed of his wife's death and an hour later boarded the northbound train and returned here.

Latter—Mr. Bottleheim is said to be still in a dazed condition, although able to be up and around. It is feared that he may yet show serious effects of the terrible ride and his almost miraculous escape.

Saved from Awful Death.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald of Fayetteville, N. C., R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage, all bronchial troubles, it has no equal. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by C. P. Champney.

VALENTINE THEATRE

Presents "Seven Days" and "The Climax" Next Week.

At the Valentine Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, opening with a New Year's matinee, Messrs. Wagenhals & Kemper will present "SEVEN DAYS" a comedy by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood over which for more than a year New York has been screaming with laughter. Here is a play with the rare distinction of having tickled the critics no less than the public, a thing that happens about once in a generation. "Seven Days," wrote the dramatic critic in the Scrap Book, "is the best farce I have ever seen. All the critics agree with me. And talk about combining! This play combines more good points than any I have ever seen in all my years of theatre going. First and foremost, it is funny, not in spots but all the way through." When a magazine writer lets himself go in that fashion the play must be a wonder.

There is a psychological moment in "The Climax" the powerful drama with which Joseph Weber surprised and conquered New York last season and which comes to the Valentine Theatre, Toledo, for an engagement of three days and a matinee, beginning Thursday January 5th. This moment arrives after Adelina, whose one ambition is to become a prima donna, has lost her voice. The disappointment is a keen one. Two young men are suitors for Adelina's heart and hand. She is so absorbed in her music that she hasn't bothered about marriage. With her voice gone, however, Adelina is called upon to choose one or the other. She decides upon one, then a twist in events causes her to change her opinion. Which will she choose in the end. That is the great question. Even when the curtain falls the audience wants to settle the matter for Adelina for never was a girl so influenced by argument on both sides.

OBITUARY.

Almon E. Wilson was born June 24th, 1839, in Wayne county, Ohio, and departed this life December 19th, 1910, at the age of 71 years, 5 months and 25 days.

He was married to Laura J. Lake March 18th, 1860, near Findlay, O., and shortly afterwards they began their married life on a farm near Haskins, O., and always lived in Wood county, with the exception of a few years that they lived in Toledo, O. His wife departed this life March 17th, 1908.

To this union ten children were born, eight of whom survive to mourn the loss of kind and loving parents: Sam Wilson and Mrs. Clayton Johnson of Bowling Green; J. A. Wilson, of Gadsden, Ala., who was unable to attend the funeral; Leroy Wilson and Mrs. John Koons of Perrysburg; Charles Wilson of Toledo; Mrs. Harry Skinner of Azalia, Mich., and J. K. Wilson of Prairie Depot, O., He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Levi Johnson of Weston, and three brothers, Joe Wilson of Haskins and Messrs. John and Sheldon Wilson of Toledo, O., together with a large circle of friends to mourn his death.

He enlisted in his country's service at the first call, as private in Company A, 11th O. V. I., and endured the trials and hardships of those sad and anxious days, to the close of the War.

He was a kind and affectionate husband and father, and his sudden summons to the Last Roll Call, is deeply mourned by both relatives and friends.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. When Chamberlain's Liniment is applied a cure may be effected in three or four days. This liniment is one of the best and most remarkable preparations in use. Sold by C. P. Champney.

SHERIFF HEALD

Makes Known Who His Official Family Will Be.

When Floyd Heald, the Democratic sheriff elect, takes the oath of office next Monday, the entire personnel of the sheriff's office will be changed. Sheriff Andy Roach retiring and his two deputies, W. C. Davenport, who was the Republican candidate for the office at the November election, and Fred Hankey, going with him.

In their places will come Gus Skibbie of North Baltimore, whose appointment as chief deputy has been understood to be confirmed for some time, and John B. Shoecraft. Shoecraft's appointment will come as a surprise to the public. He was a candidate in the Republican primaries for the nomination for sheriff against Davenport and when the latter was nominated went into the campaign as a supporter of Heald. He spent the greater part of his time at Rossford and other points in the north end of the county, where the effectiveness of his work for the Democratic candidate was shown by the returns. His reward is the deputy sheriff appointment. This is not the first experience he will have had in the office as he was deputy for Roach during the latter's first term.

DEATH OF CAPT. BLACK.

Capt. L. Black, formerly of Bowling Green, and at one time county treasurer, died at his home in Defiance, and his remains were brought to Bowling Green for interment on Monday. Deceased was 70 years of age.

STRUCK BY STREET CAR.

What might have been a very serious accident occurred Wednesday morning near the Perrysburg end of the Maumee bridge. At 6 o'clock in the morning during a heavy rain, a Maumee Valley belt car was approaching the bridge. At the same time Munger Bros' team drawing a heavy wagon loaded with beef for the Toledo market, attempted to cross the track and the rear end of the wagon was struck by the car. The load of meat was thrown out in the snow and the team becoming frightened, ran a few rods and then stopped. No damage was done except to the rear end of the wagon and the front end of the car.

OFFICIALS HONORED.

On Tuesday afternoon the court house officials paid their respects to the retiring officials—Sheriff Roach and Prosecutor Dunlap, by presenting each with tokens of good will and respect and bidding them success and happiness in their future work.

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

The session of the Perrysburg Institute opened at the town hall on Wednesday morning, and although the weather was very unpleasant, a good sized audience was present and gave marked attention to a very interesting program.

These sessions of institute are of a very high order of merit and should be attended by every farmer, every farm owner, and every person who is in any way interested in the development of our agricultural interests.

COURT HOUSE GLEANINGS

Things Doing at the County Seat of Justice.

Married to William F. Carpenter in 1872 at Tiffin, Ohio, Mrs. Mary Carpenter has come to the end of a long married life and has sued her husband for a divorce. The interval between the wedding and the application for a divorce comes pretty near being the record in Wood county. She alleges that her husband a few months ago abandoned her and has since failed to provide for her.

Elisa Pisel has filed an action for divorce from Charles N. Pisel, her grounds of complaint being non support, gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty.

Daniel C. Bemis of Haskins, is the defendant in a divorce suit filed Thursday by his wife Hannah, which is certain to create a sensation in his home community where he is prominent and to attract attention over the county as Bemis has been one of the prominent country leaders of the Democratic party and gave George Histe, clerk of courts-elect, a close race for the nomination in the party primaries last spring.

His wife sets out in her petition that they were married in Toledo on the 27th day of May, 1909 and that on the 25th of August of this year he abandoned her. She makes the formal allegation of non-support as well and supports it with a story that would make Bemis out a rather stingy and parsimonious sort of a husband. She says that she has been compelled to work out at menial service ever since their marriage in order to support herself although Bemis is made a good living. More than that she says that Bemis would make her give him the money she earned and that he ate food which she purchased with money she had earned working out. Once she was taken seriously ill and he refused to provide her with medical attendance or drugs. The climax came when she finally earned the money and bought two young pigs which she expected to subsist on for some time. She unwisely went away from home one day and when she returned found that Bemis had providently taken the pigs and sold them putting the money in his own pockets. She now wants a decree.

Following the recent controversy in the probate court over the admission of the will of the late Christiana Bay to probate, an application granted by Judge Nearing with the following appointment of D. W. Pugh of this city as administrator, the expected happened Friday when suits were filed in the court of common pleas asking that the will be declared void and the action of Nearing overruled. One suit is entitled Anna O. Bay against Jerusha Mercer et al against Elizabeth Bower et al. All the plaintiffs and defendants are legatees under the terms of the will but are not satisfied with its provisions. One of the petitions says that undue and fraudulent influence was exercised on Bay before he died by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Haag of Elyria, and that Bay was of unsound mind at the time the instrument in controversy was drawn.

In connection with these suits a motion has also been filed in the probate court demanding that the letters of administration, given to Pugh be withdrawn.

Another of the booze cases which were decided by Judge Nearing in a conviction of the defendant which have been upheld without exception by the court of common pleas was that of Albert Heyman of Tontogany.

Heyman was convicted a good while ago of keeping a place where intoxicating liquors were sold and appealed to the higher court. His appeal was denied and the costs assessed against him this week. This makes an as yet unbroken record for the probate court which has been sustained in every case. There yet remains to be disposed of the ten cases against the Rogers brothers and George Carmack and three cases against Dr. William of Jerry City.

Joseph W. Sheely is the plaintiff in an action against William L. Yates and numerous others in an effort to quiet the title to a piece of more than 100 acres of land in Perry township.
